Award winning restaurant & chef based in Mortimer

THE Cinnamon Tree in Mortimer has won an award for being in the top 100 South East best Asian restaurants.

Based on The Street in the Village of Mortimer, the restaurant has gone from strength to strength. Their award-winning chef has been with the restaurant specialising in Bangladeshi & Indian Cuisine for 7 years.

Kuti, the owner of the Cinnamon Tree has been in the business for over 41 years.

Kuti came to England with his family from Bangladesh in 1976 where he worked as a chef and manager for 5 years at a restaurant based in Kent.

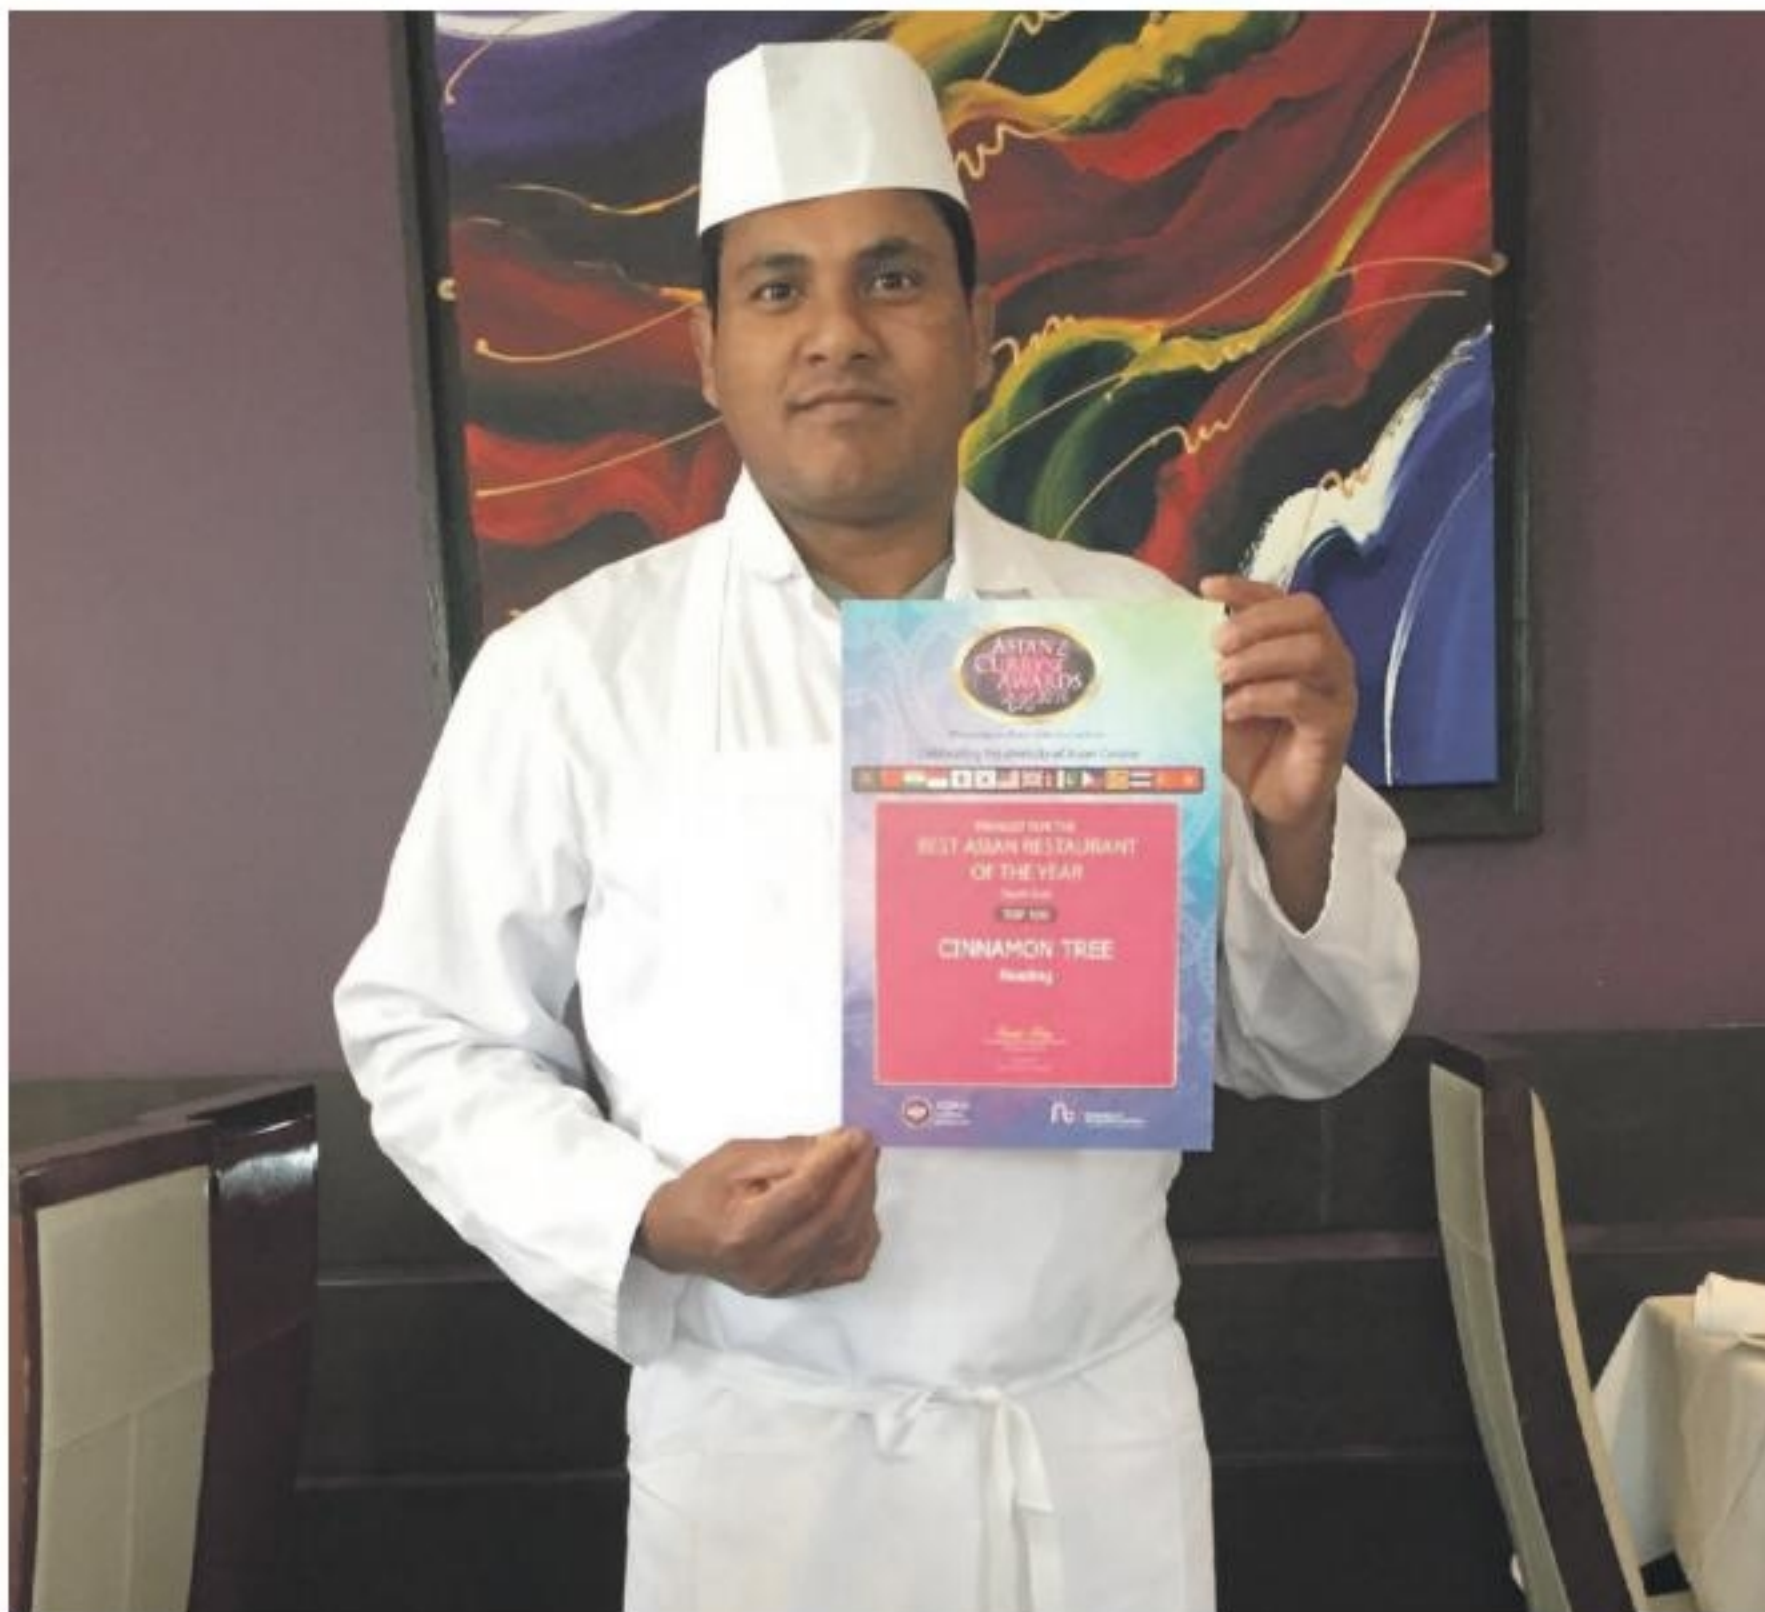

In 1981 Kuti decided to set up his own restaurant in Kent which he ran for many years until he decided to move into Berkshire where he opened a restaurant in Eton Wick, this is where he met his now chef based at the Cinnamon Tree.

We then fast forward to 2007 where the property in Mortimer came up for sale and Kuti saw this as a perfect opportunity to set up a new business in a village setting with fantastic views and rural surroundings.

The new property in Mortimer was perfect as it is local to the train station, Devere Wakefield Park Hotel, M4, Reading, Madjeski Stadium, Tadley & Basingstoke.

Since opening in 2007 they have won several awards for their outstanding home inspired food, been given a 4 star hygiene rating & insured that every customer receives the highest level of service.

The restaurant has a very good in a special sauce that is full of flavour and compliments all of the seasoning on the succulent meat.

Also on trial was the Mach Mas-sala, this dish is perfect if you are fish lover. The Mach Massala is chunks of flavoursome salmon which are marinated in special home inspired spices and then cooked with fresh garlic, tomatoes & herbs.

The dish is light but full of flavour and is perfect for those looking for something that isn't too hot but still has plenty of flavour.

On the side, we had Chicken Tikka which is barbecued and cooked in a clay oven, this dish is served sizzling with cooked onions, we knew our food was on the way when the sizzling hot plate came out of the kitchen. The chicken was succulent and deliciously full of flavour and was perfect as a starter but could equally be used as a side to complement any of the dishes on offer.

We were given a generous helping of Onion Bhaji's and they were just what was needed to go with the Mas-sala sauce.

It was hard to resist the fine breads on offer, so we decided on the Peshwari naan. This naan was perfectly sweet and perfect for sharing.

When it comes to wine; the Cinnamon Tree have a huge array of wines to choose from, we opted for the Gracia de Chile Sauvignon Blanc, this is a refreshing, light and crisp wine which accompanies the fresh curry's that we opted for.

Of course, if you don't fancy wine there is the famous Cobra beer, whiskeys, gins, vodkas and almost any spirit that you can think of all well stocked behind the bar.

The Cinnamon Tree made the perfect Friday night meal out, the staff could not do enough for us to make our dining experience a real pleasure. They offered advice on food to try, other suggestions and also suggested that we try the Panir Shaslik Massala as a small dish on the side. The Panir Massala is a special cheese which is grilled with tomatoes, onions and green pepper before being served in a herby and spicy massala sauce.

The Cinnamon Tree really stand out from the rest.

The restaurant is the perfect retreat for anyone that wants to try some real home inspired food that is served and cooked by a friendly team in a welcoming environment.

By Olly & Natassia Papierowski

reputation for repeat customers and attracting new faces due to the high level of service and overall dining experience that the team provide.

As the Cinnamon Tree caters for functions, they have attracted business such as BMW, Devere & Guy Salmon Jaguar.

If the function can't come to the restaurant then Kuti and his team can bring the catering to you, the Cinnamon Tree offers outdoor catering service's all year round which proves popular with local business' and events including weddings.

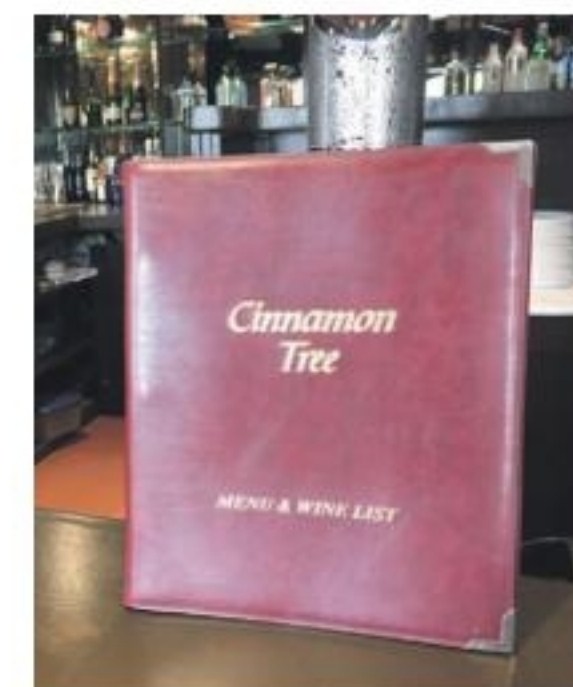

As a family friendly restaurant, the Cinnamon Tree offers a Sunday Buffet which is very popular with families and for those looking for something different than the traditional Sunday lunch. With over 20 dishes available for just £9.95 per adult and £5 for children under the age of 10. The Sunday buffet is available all year round from 1pm - 10pm and dishes that are not in the buffet are also available to order.

The Cinnamon Tree offers a huge selection of home inspired dishes & wide range of world wines to complement the vast array of taste tingling dishes that suit a complete novice when it comes to a traditional dish or a curry connoisseur.

The Observer was given the chance to try the outstanding food on offer and it did not disappoint.

The Viceroy Threjuve stood out and had to be ordered as this is one of the Chef's recommendations and is served in a medium or hot sauce with a selection of chicken, lamb & duck. The trio of meats are highly spiced and barbecued, then seasoned in ginger, onions & aromatic herbs. Before being served, it is marinated

Fly-tippers face £400 fine for illegal waste dumping

Putting the fun into fundraising

AROUND 700 runners pulled on their trainers and set off full of good cheer for the St Michael's Hospice fun run. They took part in 5k and 10k runs to raise funds for the hospice at Down Grange Sports Complex last week. So far over £18,500 has been raised.

Number of incidents more than doubles over the year

By Matthew Brown

FLY-TIPPERS in Basingstoke and Deane will now face a maximum possible fine of £400 in a bid by the borough council to crack down on the dumping of illegal waste.

The council has doubled the previous £200 fine for those caught illegally disposing of small amounts of waste.

Those convicted of dumping larger amounts face harsher penalties.

It comes as figures published by the council show the amount of fly-tipping incidents it has dealt with more than doubled from 1,036 to 2,147 in 2016/17 compared with the previous year.

Hayley Eachus, the council's cabinet member for the environment, said: "The impact of fly-tipping on our communities and countryside is significant, and we won't tolerate it."

"Our enforcement team thoroughly investigate all reported incidents and we won't hesitate to take action against anyone who is found to be responsible."

"Anyone found guilty in court could face an unlimited fine and up to five years in prison. In those cases where it's appropriate to issue a fixed pen-

Councils have the discretion to set their own fines of between £150 and £400.

Which candidate deserves your vote at the ballot box?

2017

On June 8 the country will go to the polls in the general election. In the North East Hampshire constituency voters have six candidates to choose from. Conservative Ranil Jayawardena has held the seat since the 2015 election, elected with 35,573 votes and is defending a huge majority of 29,916. The Observer has been asking each of the candidates what they would bring to the constituency, should they be elected. Next week, it will be turn of the candidates for the Basingstoke constituency. North West Hampshire candidates will feature on our website, basingstokeobserver.co.uk.

Robert Blay,
Independent

I am free from party dogma, able to speak my mind whilst representing constituents against the ever increasing national and personal debt.

In recent years I have found myself disillusioned with the Tories and UKIP having played senior roles in both parties.

Voting Blay is a vote to keep the NHS in public ownership and to reappraise all its contracts especially the offshore PFI structures.

Voting Blay is a vote to bring back the Bradbury Pound, leave the EU with no strings or divorce payment, a peaceful foreign policy but strong defences, low taxes and quality education for all.

Graham Cockarill,
Liberal Democrat

I am Graham Cockarill, the Liberal Democrat candidate for the North-East Hampshire constituency.

My family and I have lived in the area since the mid-1970s.

I have been a local councillor since 2001, serving on both Yateley Town Council and Hart District Council.

If elected to represent you, I will work hard to ensure that your voice is heard loud and clear at Westminster.

I will fight for the resources this area needs to provide quality health and education services, secure more jobs and provide good quality, low-cost housing.

Mike Gascoigne,
UKIP

I believe that we need to build more units of affordable, council-controlled social housing, to be made available to our own young people who are spending too long with mum and dad, and need to live their own independent lives.

At the same time we need the supporting infrastructure of schools, health services, shops, roads and public transport.

Houses and flats should be made available by developing on brownfield sites where possible, or by conversion of unused office blocks.

We need to leave the EU so that small businesses can thrive, free from unnecessary regulation.

Ranil Jayawardena,
Conservative

We live in a great part of the country and I have been working to make our corner of the county even better.

I care passionately about our area and our local services. That's why we need to lock in the economic progress we have made together - through Brexit and beyond - because we can only have strong public services with a strong economy to pay for them.

In the last two years, I've secured more funding for our local schools, local healthcare and local infrastructure.

With your support, you'll be strengthening my hand to get the best deal for you, your family and our community.

Barry Jones,
Labour

From listening to people in the area, I have lots of ideas on how to make our constituency the very best it can be.

We have lots to work on, which includes improving patchy public transport, integrating healthcare from hospital to home, bringing class sizes down in our overstretched schools and reversing teacher, police and nurse losses incurred under the Conservative cuts.

Our green belt also needs protecting, by switching the focus of housing developments to brownfield sites.

I hope that I will see you as I canvass in the upcoming weeks.

Chas Spradbery,
Green

We live in a beautiful and wonderful area and I want to keep it that way.

But despite the huge run-down areas elsewhere in the country, the Government continues promoting industrial growth in the south east, attracting more people from afar, and then imposing housing quotas to accommodate them.

The area is a commuter hub. Ever-increasing volumes of traffic, pollution, noise and hazardous roads are changing the character of the area, threatening our health.

If elected I will join with others of all parties to reverse this unsustainable policy and campaign for a better, greener future."

Solve the clues and crack the crimes at fun new experience

By Matthew Brown

THRILL seekers can solve crimes and mysteries in a new Crystal Maze-style experience coming to Basingstoke.

Exciting Escapes, run by brothers Dave and Peter Gale, will take adventurers back to a 1950s cold war flat, experience 1920s gangster criminality and a 1960s restaurant as participants complete a series of puzzles.

And part of the fun is that you don't know what will happen until you get through the doors.

Dave said: "We've tried to make the experience appeal to different types of people."

"There's a great mix of puzzles and teamwork - the moment you walk through the door it's all about the experience."

"We always ask people to put their phones in lockers because we want them to switch off a little from the real world, the more we can immerse people and make them feel like they're in the 1950s or the 1960s, the more they can enjoy it."

"Part of the fun is that you don't know what's going to happen until you open the door."

The duo already run a similar experience in Southampton which is ranked as TripAdvisor's

Disguised spies after completing their mission at Exciting Escapes

'number one fun thing to do in Hampshire'.

New themes and stories for the Basingstoke experience including a plot based on the 1920s and TV's Peaky Blinders gang, as well as themes featured around the 1950s and 1960s.

"We like to do it where it feels very normal, but they also have the undercurrent of working as a spy and dealing with bomb threats and murders that help them get into the story," Dave added.

Escape room attractions originated in Eastern Europe and Asia around nine years ago and are taking hold now in Britain, according to Dave.

Exciting Escapes is going to Wote Street near to Festival Place and is due to open in the week commencing July 17.

This can mean the resident is still held responsible for not ensuring it has not been disposed of properly.

Cllr Eachus added: "If it's your waste, it's your responsibility to ensure that it's disposed of correctly. One of the things we are finding is that unsuspecting residents are finding a 'man in a van' operation on sites like Facebook and paying them cash to take away their waste.

this waste is more likely to be fly-tipped than disposed of correctly, and it will still be the resident who could be found guilty of the offence. If it seems too good to be true, it probably is.

"People have to make sure they get the name and contact details of these people, and know where the waste is going."

Cyclists get on their bikes for end-to-end ride for cancer cash

By Matthew Brown

A GROUP of cyclists – including one who 'had a tumour the size of a melon' in his chest – have completed a gruelling Land's End to John O'Groats cycle ride.

The Ark cyclists have raised at least £50,000 for the Ark Cancer Charity during the nine-day, 965-mile epic challenge from one end of mainland Britain to the other.

"It has been an amazing experience and I have some amazing memories," said team leader Jonathan Hobby, who was left seriously unwell after being diagnosed with lymphoma last September.

"I am delighted to have completed this journey with such a great group of people, and we are all grateful to everyone who has sponsored us and supported the charity."

The cyclists set off from Land's End in Cornwall on May 13 and arrived in John O'Groats in Scotland at the top of mainland Britain on Sunday, May 21.

Some of the riders did certain stages of the journey and seven completed the whole ride, but it was extra special for 51-year-old father of four Jonathan.

"I had been having some difficulties in my chest with my breathing and a scan revealed that I had a tumour the size of a melon in my chest," the orthopaedic surgeon at Hampshire Hospitals NHS Trust said.

"I became seriously ill and needed emergency surgery.

"I then underwent six months of chemotherapy in the Basing Unit at Basingstoke Hospital.

"Thanks to the skill and care of the team there, I was well enough to return to work, and have been able to get back on my bike and complete this challenge."

Jonathan added that he and his fellow riders Kevin Conn, Paul Hart, Graham Hazell, Rob Hewetson, Jolyon Hobby, Chris Hocking, David Poole, Chris Sayer, Tim Syder, Peter Chapman, Mark Keane, Myles Gascoyne and Charlie Taylor – are very grateful to the support team of volunteers who helped them on the journey.

Money raised by the group will go towards a unique cancer treatment centre in the Basingstoke area.

Elderly pair conned out of £9,500

AN ELDERLY couple from the Odiham area have been cheated out of £9,500 by fraudsters claiming to be police officers.

The 69-year-old woman and 79-year-old man were conned over the phone by scammers posing as Metropolitan Police officers during the afternoon of May 5.

They were told a bank fraud was being investigated and a courier would be turning up at their house to collect cash in connection with this. They went to the bank and withdrew the cash.

A man arrived at around 4pm the same afternoon and collected the £9,500 from the couple.

He is described as black, in his mid 20s, around 5ft 11ins tall and of slim build.

The man also had short black hair and was wearing a black long sleeved top and dark trousers.

Anyone with information can call 101 quoting reference 44170168125 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Chilli out and enjoy some hot stuff

BASINGSTOKE will be feeling hot hot as the cheese and chilli festival returns to town.

The event for food lovers is taking place over the weekend of June 24 and 25 at War Memorial Park.

Families will be able to enjoy live music, stunt shows, cooking demonstrations, tastings, falconry and much more.

Chilli sauce and eating competitions are also on offer along with a real ale bar, featuring a chilli ale.

Festival organiser Simon Stewart said: "Last year was amazing, we had such great feedback about the shows.

"We've invested more time, energy and money in to the shows this year with more entertainment on offer so we are really looking forward to putting them on."

Various charities will be supported by the event including the Wessex Haven Centre, which offers support for people and families affected by cancer.

Tickets for adults are £5 in advance, £7 on the door, concessions £3, £4 on door and children under 16 go free.

Visit cheeseandchillifestival.com for further information.

26 week-old lambs found dead 'after savage dog attack'

By Matthew Brown

MORE than 20 lambs have been killed in what is believed to have been a savage dog attack in a Baughurst field.

The grim discovery was made off a bridleway from Violet Lane after they were killed sometime between 9am and 1pm on May 14.

Around 26 one-week-old lambs were found with fatal wounds that were consistent with being attacked by a large breed of dog.

Other sheep and lambs present suffered "significant shock" following the attack that left the owner deeply upset. Many of them were pedigree breeds.

"This incident took place in a popular location for dog walkers, both locally and further afield," said PC Will Butcher.

"It is likely that there would have been other dog walkers in the vicinity, and I would like to appeal to them to come forward if they have any information about this incident or those involved."

Following the attack, dog owners are being urged to be careful with their animals when around livestock.

PC Butcher added: "Dog owners are reminded that dogs should be kept on leads at all times whilst on footpaths in and around fields containing livestock."

"I would also ask members of the public walking their dogs in wooded areas or areas where livestock may not readily be seen to remember, if there is any doubt, there is no doubt. Please keep your dog on a lead.

"Being in possession of a dog that worries or causes injury or death to livestock is an offence which can result in prosecution and the pet being seized and destroyed."

"Please be mindful of the consequences."

Anyone with information should contact PC Butcher on the police non-emergency number 101, quoting 44170811134. Alternatively, call Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Lamb Inn to be knocked down

A 'FAILURE for the town' is how plans that have been approved to demolish and develop an ancient derelict pub have been described.

Plans were approved to demolish the Lamb Inn on Hackwood Road, Basingstoke, and replace it with five apartments, a maisonette and four semi-detached houses.

Basingstoke Heritage Society expressed concerns over a number of issues including parking and how the building was allowed to get into a derelict state in the first place.

"Quite frankly, the building has been allowed to fall down," the heritage society's Debbie Reavell told the meeting.

"This plan, once passed, is a failure for the town."

She also took the council to task over the failure to put the building on the borough council's local list in October 2015 - the list aims to recognise buildings of interest so development proposals can take this into account.

Cllr Andrew McCormick sympathised with the heritage society. He said: "In a conservation area, a building of merit has been allowed to fall down."

"Why are we not enforcing the conservation area?"

Officers from the borough council confirmed the local list did not offer "statutory protection" and it was not a listed building.

Members were also concerned that 14 parking spaces would not be sufficient to serve the development.

Richard Sturt, project surveyor for applicant Landmark Estates Ltd said the Lamb Inn - which opened in 1875 - "has reached the end of its life and is unviable".

He went on to explain there were many structural issues including rot, corrosion and insufficient support to the roof.

The Lamb Inn is to be demolished for housing despite concerns from Basingstoke Heritage Society

AWE employee took his life after struggling with stress at work

By Matthew Brown

A MAN found hanging from a bridge in Basingstoke took his own life after coming under "considerable stress" at work.

Martyn Robin Woolford, 55, was found seriously injured tied to railings on Worting Road Bridge above the Ringway West on November 7.

He was taken to Basingstoke Hospital where he was then pronounced dead.

The inquest heard how Mr Woolford had been in the Army for 23 years including going on a tour to Bosnia but was medically discharged in 2001 suffering from a knee injury and depression.

He took a job at the Atomic Weapons Establishment in 2004 in the convoy section before becoming a supervisor in 2014.

However some issues with two team members developed and things came to a head on April 28 last year when one of them

"became aggressive and pointing in his face", his wife Muriel Woolford told the inquest.

After a further confrontation, Mr Woolford began looking for alternative employment.

He handed in his notice and was still suffering from stress while he worked his notice period.

He was moved to another department - a workshop - but injured his knee on the first day.

Mr Woolford was taken off the shop floor and referred to occupational health before being signed off by his GP.

He never returned to work.

Mrs Woolford told the inquest at Basingstoke Coroner's Court on Tuesday her husband continued to suffer from stress as AWE HR department would occasionally call to check up on him and he was not sleeping.

Matters came to a head on November 4 when Mr Woolford's GP declared him a "significant risk" after he admitted he had tried to throw himself off a bridge on November 2. He was referred to a crisis mental health team the following day and it was decided home treatment would be best.

After being "calmer and normal" on November 6, he was found hanging from the bridge on November 7.

Coroner Andrew Bradley ruled the death suicide and described the case "as a sad matter", saying Mr Woolford's mental health issues were a contributory factor.

Pupils brush up on their passion for Jane Austen

By Matthew Brown

PUPILS from 10 Basingstoke schools have 'booked' their place at a public exhibition that celebrates Jane Austen's 200th anniversary.

Their mini bookbenches will be showcased alongside full-size benches from professional artists at 'Sitting with Jane'.

The public art exhibition around the Basingstoke area will feature dozens of the benches along a theme from the writer.

One of the aims of the 'Sitting with Jane' project is to encourage children to explore the words of Austen and to give a platform to the artistic talent in the town.

Many schools have taken part through a grant-funded scheme called VIVID.

VIVID's Marcia Burnett said: "It has been a joy to see the enthusiasm and dedication that local children have shown towards this project."

"It has given budding young artists of tomorrow a public platform and also underlines the creative talent we still have in our town, even 200 years after the passing of Jane Austen

Pupils from Daneshill School painting their bench as part of the exhibition for Jane Austen's 200th anniversary whose creative legacy lives on today."

Participating schools include Chawton CE Primary, the village where Austen spent the last few years of life and North Waltham School, a couple of miles from Steventon, the village where Austen grew up and wrote some of her most famous novels.

Festival Place will be exhibiting the youngsters' bookbench designs between May 26 and June 2 and once it is over, they will be returned to the schools as a permanent reminder of the contribution Austen made to literature.

Sally-Ann Wilkinson, director of Wild in Art which has assisted with the project said: "We're delighted that our bookbench sculpture has brought together children's creativity, visual arts, local history and learning about one of the country's most treasured authors."

Home praised for new level of dementia care

A BASINGSTOKE care home is celebrating after being recognised for a new standard of dementia care.

Marnel Lodge Care Home received the accreditation for improved personal care and staff training to better understand what living with dementia means.

Speaking about the 10-60-06 scheme, general manager Sue Monger said: "The changes we have made to our dementia care services have made a big difference to the lives of those we care for. Both staff and residents' family members have been especially delighted with the impact of the improved training programme."

"It is noticeable that people are being supported in a more person-centred way and staff have embedded what they learned into their everyday work."

Marnel Lodge was visited by specialists who found the home had met all the new standards.

Caroline Baker, director of dementia care at owner Barchester, said: "Marnel Lodge staff have worked really hard to achieve accreditation and we saw some lovely examples of how the criteria has been implemented throughout the whole home. Congratulations to all the staff."

Patient testimonial

I have recently had both my dentures replaced by Dentalia and I would like to thank everyone for making what might have been very traumatic for me, a truly trouble free experience.

I attended several routine fittings and on the last one I was advised to try to keep them in for several hours, to see how they fit but to let them know immediately if there were any discomfort, but in any case not to leave it too long before I returned to explain any soreness or fitting issues. That was about 6 months ago and I have never returned or contacted Dentalia since.

I have never needed to, in fact the only reason I did once feel I should contact them was to apologise for not contacting them at all since my final fitting.

I am now writing to thank Dentalia and in particular David for all the excellent work they did for me and the fantastic customer service throughout, well done.

New treatment focuses on better prostate care

By Matthew Brown

PROSTATE cancer sufferers have been given new treatment thanks to ground-breaking work from Basingstoke medics.

A new way of treating the disease is being put through clinical trials at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital.

The treatment - high intensity focussed ultra sound (HIFU) - deals specifically with the cancerous area and causes minimal damage unlike conventional treatment.

"HIFU has altered the way we treat prostate cancer and this will continue to change dramatically over the next few years as a result of these clinical trials," said Richard Hindley, a consultant urological surgeon who helped pioneer the technology.

"Focal therapy allows us to selectively destroy the cancerous area within the prostate gland without having to completely remove the whole gland and is an attractive alternative to active monitoring and radical treatments in appropriately selected patients."

Mr Hindley said as a result of this, there are minimal side effects and patients can return to normal activities because there is no collateral damage that radiation based-treatments give off.

He continued: "It is my impression that things are really improving at quite a rapid speed in the field of prostate cancer diagnostics and treatment."

"With that, I have little doubt that we'll see an improvement in outcomes in the longer term." Philippa Aslet, associate director of nursing, said that thanks to HIFU, they were seeing fewer patients with problems around their continence or urinary symptoms, improving their quality of life as a result.

The Pelican cancer foundation paid for the initial HIFU equipment and continue to fund a clinical trial.

Sarah Crane, chief executive of Pelican, said: "This charity has been delighted to support the HIFU therapy at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital.

"We believe this research will be invaluable for the continuing development of prostate cancer treatment in the future."

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called “boxes”, “blocks”, “regions”, or “sub-squares”) contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

WIN tickets to Thank You For The Music at the Anvil!

Saturday night and the lights are low. . . The Anvil is the place to go. . .

The world's longest-running ABBA concert show is coming to town on July 1st to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Swedish super group's biggest selling hit – Dancing Queen.

The song was a million-selling, number-one hit in 13 countries and it forms the climax to the international hit stage show Thank You for the Music. The production – which also features the UK's most successful Bee Gees revue – is now in its 23rd year.

Show producer Michael Taylor boasts that the spectacle has been delighting live music fans for longer than Bjorn, Benny, Agnetha and Frida did during the 70s and 80s. "Combining Lycra-tight harmonies with superb musicianship," he says, "Thank You for the Music has outlasted ABBA in their prime. Dancing Queen represents the pinnacle of the group's career, and we have produced a brand-new show rocking the sound of 'the right music' for 2017".

The set list, drawn from ABBA's nine number one hit singles, nine chart-topping albums and 19 top 20 singles in the UK, includes solid-gold hits like Super Trouper; Waterloo; Mamma Mia; Thank You for the Music; Gimme, Gimme, Gimme; Knowing Me Knowing You; Mamma Mia and, of course, Dancing Queen.

Thank You for the Music also features show stealers The Magic of the Bee Gees. The trio, backed by a live band, perform original Bee Gees' hits like Staying Alive, Massachusetts, Night Fever and How Deep is Your Love as well as million-sellers penned for other artists by the Bee Gees including Islands in the Stream, If I Can't Have You and Chain Reaction.

Peace of mind for the future

Why a Lasting Power of Attorney gives you just that

When you write a Will, it's not for your benefit. You do it because you want to ensure that you've done your best to protect family and loved ones; to ease pressure - emotionally and financially - when you're no longer here.

Making your Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) is something you can do for yourself - it's a precaution you can take to protect your finances, health and wellbeing.

As we age the odds of illness or accident resulting in limited physical or mental capacity increases and with it the ability to make our own decisions or choices - from the food we eat to the health care we receive - is diminished or lost. But you have a voice and that voice can be legally recognised.

By making your LPA you can elect those that you trust and want to make decisions on your behalf when you are no longer able to. You can choose one or several people and include restrictions and guidelines for your Attorney(s) to follow. Legally, they are required to follow certain principles, including amongst others:

- (1) the assumption that you have capacity until it is established that you don't
- (2) just because you've made an unwise decision does not mean you are assumed to be unable to make your own decisions and
- (3) any decisions must be made in your best interests.

Without an LPA, your loved ones will face a lengthy, stressful and costly application to the Court of Protection for an appropriate person to be named as Deputy. What's most important to note is that it is the Court's decision who is named as Deputy and this may be someone you didn't quite trust to make decisions for you or in some cases, it may be an official who doesn't know you well enough.

Michael Usher Wills & Estate Planning can help you navigate this complex application process. Our friendly and efficient service helps you make the right decisions without feeling too frustrated or stressed by forms and legal requirements. We also offer a free Will review to ensure it is up to date and will still do the things you want it to do. Appointments are available Monday to Saturday at times that suit you, either at our offices or in your home if that is more comfortable for you. Find out what our customers are saying about us at www.checkaprofessional.com and www.trustpilot.com.

Fastfit Service Centre is based in Basingstoke, Hampshire, where we provide garage services, custom made Longlife stainless steel exhausts, ecu remapping and a shop supplying alloy wheels, exhausts, performance air filters and more.

Introducing Matt & Sam at Longlife Custom Exhausts

Longlife Exhausts are the UK's leading supplier of custom built stainless steel exhausts. Longlife's franchise at Fastfit service Centre is now in it's 11th year.

The guys based at Moniton Trading Estate, Basingstoke have a wealth of knowledge on these custom exhaust systems.

Matt has been with Fastfit Service Centre for over 12 years but has been specialising in custom exhausts on just about any car you can think of for just over 15 years.

Sam has recently joined Matt's Longlife team and has his own ramp to work from to ensure they can both turn at least two full systems around every day.

A bespoke Longlife exhaust means you can choose from over 200 tailpipe designs, the noise level you desire and where you want the pipe to start from on the car – this could be from the manifold, the catalytic converter or just a backbox.

The new system you choose can be built by hand or by the pressure bending machines that are on site and can be done within 1 day. Running a Longlife exhaust on your car will ensure you get a better performance, more BHP and a lifetime warranty on the exhaust parts and fitting. We can also re-map your vehicle too. Contact us for more details.

ENTERTAINMENT & LEISURE

Dick and Dom in da Anvil

By Josh Cox

DICK & Dom will be at The Anvil on Tuesday, May 30 giving their wildly entertaining show, Dick & Dom Live.

We spoke to the pair before their performance.

Have you both performed at the Anvil before?

No, neither of us have but, we both have been to Basingstoke. Dick's girlfriend actually appeared in the Pantomime at Christmas and Dom, as a child, went to a few magic conventions in the town. We are both really looking forward to it. Basingstoke is a lovely town and has a great theatre.

There's a playful warning 'you may get messy' on the Anvil Arts website, what can the audience expect from your show?

All the usual Dick & Dom Madness! Bits from the Bungalow, and a whole mixture of all our shows over the past 20 years. We normally split the audience into two; A Dick side and a Dom side. From there, there's loads of games, everyone joins in, we'll have people on stage. It's just a real, enjoyable time and absolutely value for money.

Who is this for?

Anyone and everyone. We get a lot of families as it's ideal for both kids and parents but also pockets of students and young adults who used to watch us growing up!

Have you always been Dick and Dom, and if not, how did you decide to make the duo act?

We started out separately, Dick was a tea boy for BBC's Broom Cupboard and Dom was a magician. We both got together on the Broom Cupboard and found great chemistry, thus Dick and Dom was born.

What do you like best about performing live?

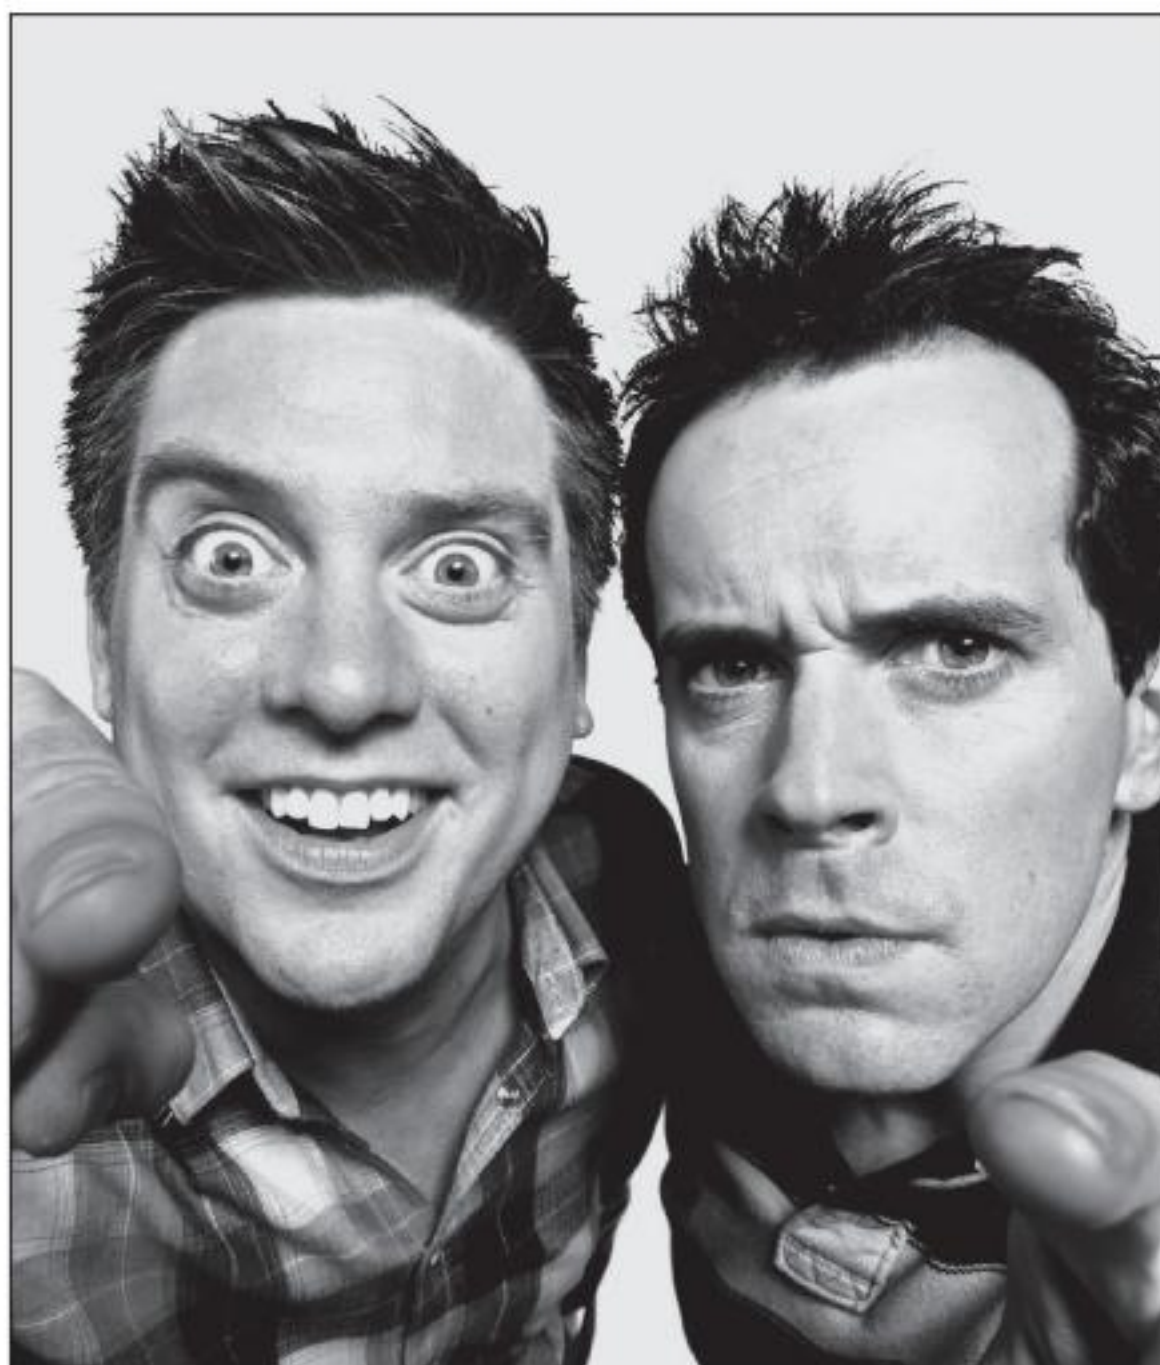

We have been doing it for over 15 years and that's purely because we absolutely love it. We love the instant gratification, seeing the laughter from the audience and just the atmosphere on the whole.

Out of all your TV shows, which did you enjoy the most?

Dick & Dom in da Bungalow by far; it was so much fun and it won two BAFTAs.

Dick & Dom Live will be at The Anvil on Tuesday May 30, at 2pm and 6pm. Adult tickets are £14 and under 16s tickets are £12, there is a discount for family tickets.

You can order yours by calling the box office on 01256 844244 or visiting the website: anvilarts.org.uk.

He's a sweetheart

COMEDY: Comical genius Stephen Bailey will be at The Forge tomorrow at 8pm on his Nation's Sweetheart UK tour.

Fresh from appearances on ITV2's Safeword and Channel 5's Celebrity Big Brother's Bit On the Side, Stephen takes to the road in his quest to be crowned the nation's sweetheart.

Tickets cost £14 and the show is suitable for ages 16 and over.

Angelic Irish singer

MUSIC: One of Ireland's most popular celtic music artists, Moya Brennan, is at The Anvil tomorrow.

Music legend Bono recently said: "I think she has one of the greatest voices the human ear has ever experienced" - ultimately meaning this show is not to be missed.

The gig starts at 7.45pm and tickets are £24.

Born in the USA

MUSIC: Well-known Seattle-based singer and instrumentalist Eli West has crossed the Atlantic for his UK tour, and is at The Forge on Saturday.

Eli's recent debut solo album, The Both, sees him taking the lead on electric and acoustic guitars and banjo. Tickets are £15, and the show starts at 7.45pm.

Hall about the wit

By Josh Cox

JOIN Rich Hall and his virtuoso musical mates for a mash-up of music, comedy and gratuitous colouration at The Anvil on Thursday, June 15.

Performing alongside Rich will be his regular band of talented and chronically unemployable urchins. You can expect the floor to reek of liquor and spent dreams.

Hall is the star of the critically-acclaimed BBC4 documentaries Rich Hall's Californian Stars, Rich Hall's You Can Go To Hell, I'm Going To Texas, Rich Hall's Inventing the Indian and Rich Hall's Presidential Grudge Match.

He also wrote and starred in a four-part series for BBC Radio 4 in November 2016 called Rich Hall's (US Election) Breakdown. Most recent was Rich Hall's Countryer Than You, focusing on country music and its origins.

Rich's critically acclaimed grouchy, deadpan style has established him as a master of absurdist irony and the king of rapid-fire wit.

He has also become well known for his television and radio work. Notable UK appearances include regular appearances on Very British Problems (Channel 4), Stand Up For The Week (Channel 4), QI (BBC1/2), Live At The Apollo (BBC1), Channel 4's Comedy Gala Live At The O2, and Have I Got News For You (BBC1).

Winning the prestigious Barry Award at the Melbourne Comedy Festival in April 2013, Hall's sardonic humour perfectly suits songs that mock popular musicians and all-too-common life situations.

While the scripted songs are brilliant, you can expect improvised lyrics based around the names and professions taken from the front row.

Tickets cost £19, which includes a £2 booking fee.

This show comes with an age warning and is suitable for ages 14 and over as it is likely to contain strong language and adult content.

To book your tickets or for more information about the show, call 01256 844244 or visit anvilarts.org.uk.

Kia Rio 1.0 T-GDi 'First Edition' Eco

Rio is like a carnival on the road

By Tony Yates

THANKS to a variety of upgrades - the new Kia Rio now feels a lot more in tune with the driver, and the looks aren't bad either.

The all-new Rio is offered with a 10-model line-up - based on four engines, three gearboxes and four trim levels, including a limited-run, luxuriously equipped 'First Edition' variant, which comes with the latest connectivity packages for the modern driver - along with modern fuel efficient engines and updated suspension and steering.

Power and efficiency

The 998cc engine is a four-cylinder turbocharged petrol engine that produces 118bhp and a maximum of 171-lb ft of torque, making it incredibly good at getting a move on quite quickly considering it's an eco car. 0-60mph comes in at around 9.8 seconds and if you add in the Start/Stop system, it will at a push return over 60mpg (combined). Flat out the Rio will reach a maximum speed of 118mph.

On the road

The new Rio handles well, and the grip levels are good - but I don't think it's as well planted as the cee'd though (no pun intended), but saying that it does do a pretty good job of keeping you on the road with very little fuss. The Rio also has no problems dealing with uneven surfaces and into the corners it feels well sorted out - and that's the surprise here when you think about the cost of the Rio compared to some of its rivals.

Equipment, safety and technology

The interior is fresh and all the buttons and dials are clear, even if they do look a little basic in appearance. The front seats have plenty of adjustment to them; feel well made and very comfortable. Rear leg room is also good and the boot space is fantastic. I also like the wide boot opening - this will help facilitate getting a large item inside the boot such as a pram or the weekly shopping.

Standard equipment across the range includes; air conditioning, front electric windows with an automatic function on the driver's side, remote locking, electrically adjustable heated door mirrors, Bluetooth, automatic light control, cornering lights and LED daytime running lights. There are also body-coloured bumpers, door mirror casings and door handles, steering wheel-mounted audio controls and 60:40 split rear seats. A four-speaker audio system is standard and safety provisions include ESC, VSM and Hill-start Assist Control to prevent the car from rolling backwards when setting off on steep inclines.

The 'First Edition' specification also adds; 17-inch alloys, a smart key entry system and engine start/stop button, stainless steel pedals, black and red faux leather upholstery and LED rear lights.

There are 10 models to choose from for the new Kia Rio

To sum up

The New Rio is now the car I always wanted it to be - thanks to Kia's clever design - and it's willingness to give the modern motorist everything they need, but without the premium price tag. What more could you possibly want.

By Adam Flinn

ROB Collard is up to second in the British Touring Car Championship (BTCC) standings after yet another strong showing at the weekend, this time at Oulton Park.

A second place finish in race two was backed up by a fifth and a sixth in races one and three as the north Hampshire driver continued his consistent start to the season.

The 48-year-old has only finished outside the top-10 once so far this year after 12 races, and his podium on Sunday was West Surrey Racing's 150th since joining forces with BMW.

He said: "I'm extremely proud to take the 150th BTCC podium for West Surrey Racing with BMW and very pleased to score another podium, which puts me in a strong position in the points."

"The BMW has been very strong all weekend, as it usually is here, and three top-five finishes is exactly what's needed to keep up a head of steam in the title fight."

"The shortening of race two possibly cost me the chance to challenge for the win, because my end of race pace was quicker than the car ahead, but I guess we'll never know."

Collard is now the only driver to have finished every race in the points this year.

His weekend started strongly after securing his best qualifying position of 2017 with ninth, although he had an untypically quiet race to get up to fifth in race one.

Race two saw Collard come alive however, and he was quickly up to third off the start.

After getting past BMW team-mate Andrew Jordan early on, Collard set off after Ash Sutton's Subaru for the lead, but wasn't quite able to get past before the end.

And with heavy ballast in race three Collard managed to hold on in the top-10 to record a sixth place finish and more valuable points.

He now sits second in the standings with 141 points, 16 behind Gordon Shedden who got back into the lead after winning race three at Oulton Park.

Duo deliver what four with bowling masterclasses

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants Cricket Club thrashed Sarisbury Athletic by eight wickets to remain top of division one of the Southern Premier Cricket League.

Sarisbury were all out for just 64 after impressive bowling displays from Martyn James and David Griffiths, who took four wickets each.

Only one of Sarisbury's batters got into double figures - Chris Bolton scoring 16 - as Basingstoke got them all out in less than 30 overs.

And it didn't take long for Basingstoke to surpass their total, taking just 14 overs for them to get to 68-2 and take the victory.

Daniel Belcher (4) and Mitch Stokes (29) were the only casualties, while Joe Oates and William Phillips were not out on 19 and six respectively.

It follows Basingstoke's wins against Calmore Sports and Ventnor already this season to ensure they remain unbeaten from their first three games.

They sit top of the table with a points average of 21.00, with Bournemouth the only other team to have won all three of their games so far.

Basingstoke will hope to keep the run going when they host Liphook and Ripsley this Saturday.

Basingstoke's bowlers were in top form on Saturday

Basics still waiting to hook their first victory of new season

HOOK and Newnham Basics are still waiting for their first Southern Premier Cricket League division one win of the season after losing by 23 runs to Bournemouth.

Bournemouth batted first and set a target of 221-5 from their 46 overs, reduced by the weather.

Hook made a slow start in response and got to 68-5, before brothers Matthew and Josh Buckingham put some runs on the board after scoring 55 and 33 respectively. But time was running out, and Hook reached the end of their 46 overs short, finishing on 198-9.

Meanwhile in division two, Hartley Wintney are up to third after beating South Wilts by 22 runs. Wintney set a target of 216-9 - including 45 from William Kerr and 33 from Will Ross - from their 50 overs.

The bowlers then got South Wilts all out for 194, with Dan Reynaldo getting four wickets and James Beckwith three.

Both Hook and Wintney are back in action this coming Saturday. Hook host Tichborne Park while Wintney are at home to Paultons.

News Bites

No win repeat

MOTORSPORT: Ricky Collard couldn't repeat his debut heroics in the ADAC GT Masters at the weekend as he and team-mate Philipp Eng could only manage a best finish of fifth.

They were racing at the Lausitzring in Germany, and had been running in the top-three in race two before dropping back, to add to their 17th place in race one.

The duo won a race in the first round at Oschersleben in April - north Hampshire driver Collard's debut in the series.

They are now fourth in the championship standings with 36 points, although Collard still heads the junior class table.

Ladies thrashed

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town Ladies ended their South West Division 1 season in disappointing fashion after losing 6-0 at home to Plymouth Argyle.

Plymouth were the favourites heading into the match as they were already guaranteed second in the table, while Basingstoke have ended the season in ninth.

They picked up three wins, five draws and 12 defeats to finish a point ahead of Cheltenham Town, and one behind St Nicholas.

Bison dominant

ICE HOCKEY: After beating Oxford Midnight Stars 3-1 last week, Basingstoke Bison Ladies did even better on Sunday to thrash them 7-0.

Jodie Attrill scored four of the goals, while Philippa Steele, Elizabeth Winstanley and Peri Edmiston grabbed the others.

Bison have one game left against Streatham Storm on Sunday, where a win could see them leapfrog Cardiff Comets into second in the standings.

Rose in action

Uncertainty for Bison over league plan for next season

By Adam Flinn

THE structure of the new ice hockey league Basingstoke Bison are due to play in next season is still in doubt after three teams resigned last week. It had been agreed that the National Ice Hockey League 1, which Bison will play in from September, would be split into two localised conferences of six teams.

But last Friday the English Ice Hockey Association (EIHA) said this would now not be going ahead, and as such it would be one league of 12 teams.

With this bringing extra travel costs, three teams have announced their intention to withdraw from the league – Oxford City Stars, Solent Devils and Chelmsford Chieftains.

As a result there is now uncertainty over what form the league will take.

In a statement, the EIHA said: "This is a dark day for the NIHL and no doubt the repercussions of this issue will be felt for some time to come."

"After our meeting on May 7, where the league was in such a positive place, it is desperately disappointing to see this happen."

"We would like to thank all three clubs for what they have brought to NIHL1 over the years and they will be truly missed.

"The league management committee continues to speak with all of the member clubs in the NIHL South to reach a solution as soon as possible."

"Finally, we thank the supporters of the teams for their patience in this difficult time and we will issue a further statement as quickly as we can."

Along with Bison, the other teams due to play in the NIHL1 next season are Bracknell Bees, Cardiff Fire, Milton Keynes Thunder, Invicta Dynamos, London Raiders, Peterborough Phantoms, Streatham, and Swindon Wildcats.

Just before the news last week, Bison announced their first three signings for the coming season.

Forward Dan Davies, defence-man Dan Scott and forward Vanya Antonov have all been re-signed.

Head coach Doug Sheppard said: "All three players bring something different to the team and I am really pleased to have all three of them back."

"This is a great start to the team for the coming season and I am sure the fans will be excited to see all three back in a Bison jersey."

Collard races to second

Rob Collard celebrates his podium finish

Rob Collard's consistent start to the British Touring Car Championship season continued at Oulton Park this weekend with another podium finish. The north Hampshire racer is up to second in the standings after picking up another second place on Sunday, narrowly missing out on a win. He is now the only driver to have scored points in every race this season, with just reigning champion Gordon Shedden above him in the table after four rounds.
